- Boxed plants are stacked on a pallet and stretch wrapped together to create one unit.

Credit Card Required on File for all Pallet Orders

- All payments must be approved prior to shipment for all fedex orders. We do not offer the potential for credit terms until we have had at least a year of repeated business. We do accept tax exempt information.

For FedEx LTL Pallet Shipments

Please answer the following questions and submit with your order.

Company Name:

1) Is your shipping address zoned residential or commercial?

This information is crucial to the cost of your freight.

2) Can a Tractor Trailer access your facility without impediment? Yes No

3) If you are zoned residential, are you willing to pick up your order at your local Fedex Depot? Yes No

This can reduce the cost of your shipping. To accept a delivery at a depot a wooden pallet would require a large truck to receive, Boxed pallets can be broken down but not wooden pallets at the Depot.

4) If you are zoned residential do you have a local business with commercial zoning that would be willing to accept your shipment? Yes No

5) Do you have a forklift or tractor to offload a pallet at your location? Yes No

6) Is the shipping address and contact information on your acknowledgement correct for the day of shipping? Is there a better phone number for shipping? Yes No

7) Are you open to substitutions? Yes No

8) If there are open spots on your pallet are you open to growers' choice (related to your items and preferences)? Yes No

9) What is the maximum number of pallets you are open to for your order?

10) I understand that the materials cost is $170 and the freight is additionally added at the time of shipment. I understand

11) I have read and understood the Standard Terms agreement and will refer to this document first in the event of any claims or questions. Terms Signed
